Time of Incident: 1937 Hours

Incident Case #: 15-21991

Summary:

On Saturday May 16, 2015 at 1937 hours, BPD officers responded to Wolcott Road in the area of Indian Trail for a serious motor vehicle crash. Officers arrived and found a two-car collision. Both operators were seriously injured and transported to area hospitals. At the time of the crash, the identities of the operators were not released pending notifications to family members.

UPDATE:

MAY 19, 2015: David Kozikowski, age 56 of Wolcott had been heading south on Wolcott Road operating a 2013 Ford Escape. His vehicle crossed over the centerline and sideswiped a vehicle being operated by Matthew Lyga, age 31 of Bristol. Lyga had been operating a 2007 Jeep Wrangler and was headed north on Wolcott Road. Both operators were injured and the vehicles heavily damaged.

Lyga was treated at Waterbury Hospital and later released. Kozikowski was initially transported to Saint Francis Hospital in Hartford and later brought to Yale New Haven Hospital for treatment. At this time, he is listed in serious condition.

Traffic Division officers continue to investigate and no enforcement action has been taken. Anyone with information about this crash is urged to call (860) 584-3030.
